Description: Just over the state line in Wilmot, Wisconsin, Camp Crown has 146 acres of rolling hills with wooded and open areas, campsites and a heated shelter make weekend campouts a memorable experience for Scouts. This facility is used for training, weekend activities, unit campouts, Camp-O-Rees, Webelos Woods and winter camping such as OKPIK. The Frank Jadel Training Center is located on the property. A very nice destination for a weekend campout.

Summer Camp Program: This facility is not used for Summer Camp and is better suited for Cub Scout events.

Facilities Description: There is a heated shelter for 30 people. There are 20 campsites with water pumps and latrines. The main building in camp is the Frank Jadel Training Center. The Frank Jadel Training Center located at Camp Sol R. Crown is available to be reserved for Council, District and Unit events. The Frank Jadel Center is ideal for large or small conferences and meetings, as well as Eagle Courts of Honor, Blue & Gold Dinners, and Unit overnight stays. The building is equipped with a catering kitchen, full restroom and shower facilities as well as covered outdoor meeting space.

Out of Season Camping: Camp Crown is available to be reserved almost every weekend of the year.
